Finance council report :

The parish is still able to pay staff at this time. Hourly staff is being paid on an average of recent pay. Peter, Barb, and Fr. Howard worked to apply for the small business loan under the CARES Act through JP Morgan. We are waiting to hear about approval at this time the money has run out and Congress just approve additional money.

Status of Capital campaign?

On hold until further notice

Visionary discussion – Update

A lot has been done by the parish staff regarding the parish and using technology.

Fr. Howard brought up the possibility of continuing to live stream masses for the homebound and nursing home residents in the future.

BASICS

Britt will forward Dick S. the program overview and contact details for the organization as well as local contacts who might be willing to partner with the Human Concerns committee.

Free Pantry/Blessing Box

Angie did share the website and additional information, but Jamie was not able to make the call for us to discuss more. Fr. Howard did mention due to COVID-19 this would not be an option due to strict restrictions.
